'We are called to be a welcoming caring faith community who bring people to Jesus who sends us out with Good News for all'.

Dr. Nicola Brady
Chair of Synodal Steering Committee

Welcome to the Irish Synodal Pathway

On 10 March 2021, the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference announced a new Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly or Assemblies within the next five years. This process will focus on the question:

'What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?'

We hope this website will become an important stopping point on that journey, resourcing each one of us as we continue our Synodal journey. www.synod.ie

Turn no-one away from synod, archbishop pleads

One of Ireland's most-senior prelates has insisted that the planned synod gathering on the future of Catholicism must be open to all voices if it is to bring meaningful reform to the Church here. Archbishop Francis Duffy warned that the process would only be worthwhile if Church leaders can reach out to those who are not involved with the Church and those who feel hurt and alienated including women. Archbishop Duffy – who was installed as Archbishop of Tuam at the weekend – told The Irish Catholic the Irish synod should be open “as wide and to as many people as possible”. He described the synodal process is “essential” as Ireland grapples with issues like the declining number of priests and religious, as well as lower engagement with the Church. It is an important opportunity to ask the questions Pope Francis has posed to the Church globally, Dr Duffy added: “What does God want of the Church in Ireland it's important to have that asked and to listen to the great variety of things that people say.”

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
As we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
Make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
And how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
Do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong
path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
So that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever.

AMEN
